5. CLASSES AND "HUNTING" descriptions

5.1. ADVENTURE

For everybody, from beginners to experts. Orientation, online map reading skills are required as well as a special GPS-app on the personal Smart-phone, enabling to read and record tracks. On 3 of 5 days different points - "wolves" - have to be reached in the wide mountains. Inside "open areas" (shown as circled by GPS line on Smartphone) the way to the wolves can be chosen freely, according to driving skill, orientation, landscape - the difficulty can therefore be easy or extreme. The driving time depends very much on the team's speed of driving, picking faster or slower ways, orientation, capacity of following a GPS track, finding the points: ca. 3-7 h daily. On 2 days Adventure riders have a GPS track to be followed. The tolerance left and right is no more than 100 meters.

Drivers in this class can form a TEAM. Maximum team size is 3 vehicles per team.

5.2. CROSSOVER + SIDE BY SIDE

For good riders. 100% off-road! Mandatory tracks to follow are difficult, narrow, steep downhill's and uphill's, rocks, climbs and downhills, diagonal driving, high speed. Dangerous for not experienced riders. Days are 3-8 hours long!

5.3. Only individual evaluations.

5.4. ATV EXTREME

For very good riders only! To start in EXTREME riders should be a bit crazy, ready to assume very high risk. This class is very dangerous; ATV and body can suffer severe damages. 100% off-road! Mandatory tracks are extremely difficult, very narrow, very steep downhill's and uphill's, rocks, long climbs and long downhill's, diagonal driving, high speed. Very dangerous for every and also the most experienced riders. Days are 3-8 hours long! Slow racers might never reach the finish line before the daily time finish.

5.5. Only individual evaluations.

5.6. ADVENTURE class and Side by Side category will be formed and take place only if a minimum of 5 teams in Adventure and 6 racers in SxS register in the respective class. In case these numbers are not reached 2 weeks before the race start, class or category is cancelled or merged with other class and registered racers can start in a valid category. In case a pilot is not willing to race in merged class, the organizer will refund all paid registration fees.

Official Regulations of CFMOTO-HUNT-THE-WOLF 2019

14. GENERAL RULES OF THE "HUNT"

- 14.1. You must follow given track and not leave it sideways for more than 100 m. If, after leaving the "tolerance 100 m area" left or right of the track, you are not turning back into the tolerance area where you left it or before, you will be disqualified for that day.
- 14.2. A second day disqualification takes the racer out of the race qualification.
- 14.3. All riders MUST slow down to max 50 km/h in villages, from first house of village to last house of village near road. There is a GENERAL SPEED LIMIT OF 50 KM/H ON ALL PAVED ROADS (ASPHALT). 1 min penalty for each km/h over speed limit. It will count the average of any 500 to 1000 m long sections, checked later on GPS-device or trackers. Slow down near animals, especially near horses or when passing or crossing horse wagons.
- 14.4. Each race-day ends at an indicated hour in the afternoon, specified at briefing in the morning. Kilometers driven in EXTREME and CROSSOVER or reached "wolfs" in ADVENTURE after the indicated hour will not be considered anymore. CROSSOVER and EXTREME riders will be taken off the track by organizer when remaining permitted race-time would not allow to finish the track anymore. If taken off track, pilot is given a yellow card by default. Essential: after official daily race-end pilots must leave the track and take the easiest and fastest way home.
- 14.5. No change of vehicle allowed during racing days. Repairs can be done anytime, but no stop time is given for repairs. Whenever the organizer is called for any kind of emergency (mechanical or medical) the race day ends for the pilot/team needing emergency. Organizer will recover broken down vehicles only AFTER every official race day end, and even if the organizer repairs a broken vehicle along the track, the racer is not allowed to end the race that day.
- 14.6. At CFMOTO-HTW time (hours and minutes) is the only thing considered for the results.
- 14.7. Best time wins. Daily time differences to first of each day will matter.
- 14.8. First gets 0 time, others the difference to first.
- 14.9. Winner will be who will have smallest time difference to 0.
- 14.10. In case of equal 2 best times after 4 valid racing days, the seconds of the Test-round count as deciding factor. (EXTREME CLASS ONLY)

Official Regulations of CFMOTO-HUNT-THE-WOLF 2019

- 14.11. The worst day of each racer/team in all classes will be cancelled (eliminated) at end of race-event and before final results are done. As worst day is considered any day with yellow card or the day with biggest time gap to leader at day finish (0.00" time).
- 14.12. The race-day ends at finish or by finish-time (daily race time over). Finish must be reached with own vehicle.
- 14.13. All GPS-devices must be given to the organizer immediately at the finish, with a maximum 3 minutes delay – otherwise the day will not count.
- 14.14. Finish time procedure will be stated in additional part of regulations before the race.
- 14.15. The race fee includes vehicle rescue to base from any road which can be driven with a standard 4x4 car. 50 Euro extra charge for vehicle-rescue from off-road locations

15. DISQUALIFICATION

- 15.1. For disobeying orders given by organizer.
- 15.2. For not helping each other in case of accidents. It is necessary for each pilot to stop and ask if the casualty (the person who is in case of need) is ok. If help is needed, you must help and call for help. Helping time will show as standing time on GPS and will be subtracted from the day result. Attention: people in state of shock use to deny the necessary aid. You must verify the physical integrity of the person who might be in case of need by asking and getting at least 3 times a positive answer from the person involved in the accident.
- 15.3. For incorrect or unfair behavior towards other people, hikers, race organizer/participants or any other individuals.
- 15.4. For irregular trash disposal. Any kind of trash has to be thrown into special bags or cans.
- 15.5. For racing without mandatory safety equipment: helmet, chest-, elbow, knee-, foot protector, gloves and goggles (accordingly to the class requirements).
- 15.6. Exceeding speed limit where imposed for more than 20 km/h (example: going 70 km/h or more where going over 50 km/h is permitted)
- 15.7. For pilots it is strictly forbidden to consume alcoholic beverages before they reach the finish. Each driver may be checked by organizer with Alco-tester to see if the driver is sober. If alcohol level in the pilot's blood is detected – he is suspended from the race for that day. Tolerance is (0.00 per 1000).

Official Regulations of CFMOTO-HUNT-THE-WOLF 2019

16. ADDITIONAL RULES FOR EXTREME

- 16.1. Racers in EXTREME are (except in emergency situations) NOT allowed to accept help from any other person, except same from same class racers or from organizer. It is not allowed to get people pushing/pulling/holding pilot or ATV, or pull and fix their winch ropes, etc.
- 16.2. Whoever is seen, filmed or reported as accepting this prohibited kind of help, will get 15 (fifteen) minutes penalty time for each time he was helped.
- 16.3. In EXTREME the test round-time defines the starting order for the 1st day mass start. In EXTREME, in case of equal time after the 4 best regular racing days, the test round-time-result matters as a kick down for the slower test-round-driver.

17. ADDITIONAL RULES ADVENTURE

- Will be published 2019-01-10

18. RESULTS

- 18.1. Preliminary day race results will be announced 1 hour after time cap of the day.
