5. CLASSES

- 5.1. The race event HUNT-THE-WOLF-2020 offers 4 different classes: ADVENTURE, CROSSOVER, SXS and EXTREME. The choice of class must be made when registering online. Subsequently, a class change is possible only 1 time and only from difficult class to easier class (=downgrading), and costs 20 €.

5.2. ADVENTURE

For everybody, but NOT beginners. Orientation and GPS-app reading skills are required, as well as a GPS-app on the personal Smart-phone. The app must be good to receive, save and show GPS-points sent by mail by organizer. All days different points - "wolfs" (GPS-point) - have to be reached in the wide mountains. The way to the wolves can and must be chosen freely, according to own will, driving skill, orientation, landscape - the difficulty can therefore be easy or extreme. The driving time depends very much on the team's speed of driving, choosing faster or slower ways, orientation, capacity of following GPS direction, finding the points: ca. 3-7 h daily. Every race day time counting ends at the "last wolf", defined as this by the organizer. But the base must be reached at the latest before the official daily racing end-time. For details see EVALUATION ADVENTURE below. Adventure pilots MUST form teams of minimum 2 vehicles. Maximum team size is 3 vehicles per team and 6 racers. The team members and team name must be determined by September 7, 2020, during registration process. A team must always start and finish together. If a team does not stay together all times, the team gets yellow card 1st time, red card and out of race 2nd time. Only (complete) team evaluation.

Official Regulations of HUNT-THE-WOLF 2020

5.3. CROSSOVER

For skilled and experienced riders. 100% off-road! The mandatory tracks to follow are difficult, narrow, steep climbs and downhill, diagonal driving, rocks, high speed. The driving of CROSSOVER tracks requests high driving skills, endurance and is dangerous. Not suitable for not experienced riders. Days are 3-7 hours long! Only individual evaluations.

5.4. SIDE BY SIDE (SxS; SSV;UTV)

For skilled and experienced riders. 100% off-road! The mandatory tracks to follow are very difficult, narrow, steep climbs and downhill, diagonal driving, rocks, high speed. The driving of SXS-tracks requests high driving skills, endurance and is dangerous. Not suitable for not experienced riders and for SxS owners concerned about scratches or more on their vehicles. Days are 3-7 hours long! Only individual evaluation.

5.5. EXTREME

Extreme is for very good riders only! Pilots entering EXTREME class must be crazy; ready to assume very high risk. This class is extremely dangerous; ATV and body can suffer severe damages. 100% off-road! Mandatory tracks are extremely difficult, very narrow, rocks, long climbs and long downhill`s, off-chamber driving at the limit, high speed. Very dangerous for every, also the most experienced, racer. Days are 3-7 hours long! Slow racers might never reach the finish line before the daily time finish. Only individual evaluation.

5.6. MINIMUM NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: while the classes EXTREME and CROSSOVER will take place in any case, the ADVENTURE class and the Side by Side category will be formed and will take place only if a minimum of 6 teams in Adventure and 8 racers in SxS register in the respective class. In case these numbers are not reached 2 weeks before the race starts for Adventure class, 5 weeks before the start for the SxS category, registered racers can start in one of the other classes/category. In case a pilot does not want to race in another class, the organizer will refund all paid registration fees by the day of race.

- 10.5. The owner of the item is responsible for the security of things, throughout the basecamp territory.
- 10.6. Organizer does not respond to theft or otherwise destroyed assets.

11. PARKING

Official Regulations of HUNT-THE-WOLF 2020

- 11.1. There is guarded parking lot for race vehicles from 2020-09-06 evening until 2020-09-12 morning near start area. Vehicles parked outside this parking area are left at own risk.

12. Race day

12. START

- 12.1. First day start line will be set by following principles:
- 12.2. EXTREME, SxS and CROSSOVER according to test drive result. Fastest pilot chooses start position first and accordingly selection follows.
- 12.3. ADVENTURE class starts by registration number sequence. Who registered and payed all fees first chooses start position first and accordingly selection follows.
- 12.4. All following days start position will depend from overall result, fastest racers choosing first.
- 12.5. All racers must leave start area during 15 minutes after START is given.
- 12.6. Start announcement procedure:
- Starting time will be announced in every morning at briefing
 - All participants will be reminded about start time 15 and 5 minutes before, at starting area
 - All participants will be reminded once again about start time 1 minute before, at starting area
 - After "15 seconds sign" is shown, start can be given in any moment after that.
 - Fault-start fine is +5 minutes to the end result of the day. Fault start will be proofed by video recording.

13. GENERAL RULES OF THE "HUNT"

- 13.1. All, except Adventure pilots, must follow given track and not leave it sideways for more than 100 m. If, after leaving the "tolerance 100 m area" left or right of the track, you are not turning back into the tolerance area where you left it or before, you will be disqualified for that day.
- 13.2. A second day disqualification takes the racer out of the race qualification.
- 13.3. All riders MUST slow down to max 50 km/h in villages, from first house of village to last house of village near road. There is a GENERAL SPEED LIMIT OF 50 KM/H ON ALL PAVED ROADS (ASPHALT). 1 min penalty for each km/h over speed limit. It will count the average of any 500 to 1000 m long sections, checked later on GPS-device or trackers. Slow down near animals, especially near horses or when passing or crossing horse wagons.

- 13.4. Each race-day ends at an indicated hour in the afternoon, specified at briefing in the morning. Kilometers driven in EXTREME, SxS and CROSSOVER or reached “wolfs” in ADVENTURE after the indicated hour will not be considerate anymore. Riders will be taken off the track by organizer when remaining permitted race-time would not allow to finish the track anymore. If taken off track, pilot is given a yellow card by default. Essential: after official daily race-end all pilots must leave the track and take the easiest and fastest way home.
- 13.5. No change of vehicle allowed during racing days. Repairs can be done anytime, but no stop time is given for repairs. Whenever the organizer is called for any kind of emergency (mechanical or medical) the race day ends for the pilot/team needing emergency. Organizer will recover broken down vehicles only AFTER every official race day end, and even if the organizer repairs a broken vehicle along the track, the racer is not allowed to end the race that day.
- 13.6. At HUNT-THE-WOLF time (hours, minutes AND SECONDS) is the only thing considered for the results – EXCEPT in ADVENTURE class, where the number of reached “wolves” matters over time.
- 13.7. Best time wins. Daily time differences to first of each day will matter. First gets 0 time, others the difference to first. Winner will be who will have smallest time difference to 0.
- 13.8. In EXTREME class, if at end of race event the 2 best times are same by less then 60 seconds, the result of the test-round counts as deciding factor.
- 13.9. The worst day of each racer/team in all classes will be cancelled (eliminated) at end of race-event and before final results are done. As worst day is considered any day with yellow card or the day with biggest time gap to leader at day finish (0.00” time).
- 13.10. The race-day ends at finish or by finish-time (when “daily given race time” is over); ends at “last wolf” and/or “finish time” for ADVENTURE. Finish must be reached with own vehicle, or pulled by other registered and racing racers.
- 13.11. All GPS-devices must be given to the organizer immediately at the finish, with a maximum 3 minutes delay – otherwise the day will not count.

14. DISQUALIFICATION

- 14.1. For disobeying orders given by organizer.

Official Regulations of HUNT-THE-WOLF 2020

- 14.2. For not helping each other in case of accidents. It is necessary for each pilot to stop and ask if the casualty (the person who is in case of need) is ok. If help is needed, you must help and call for help. Helping time will show as standing time on GPS and will be subtracted from the day result. Attention: people in state of shock use to deny the necessary aid. You must verify the physical integrity of the person who might be in case of need by asking and getting at least 3 times a positive answer from the person involved in the accident.
- 14.3. For incorrect or unfair behavior towards other people, hikers, race organizer/participants or any other individuals.
- 14.4. For irregular trash disposal. Any kind of trash has to be thrown into special bags or cans.
- 14.5. For racing without mandatory safety equipment: helmet, chest-, elbow, knee-, foot protector, gloves and goggles (accordingly to the class requirements).
- 14.6. Exceeding speed limit where imposed for more than 20 km/h (example: going 70 km/h or more where going over 50 km/h is permitted)
- 14.7. For pilots it is strictly forbidden to consume alcoholic beverages before they reach the finish. Each driver may be checked by organizer with Alco-tester to see if the driver is sober. If alcohol level in the pilot's blood is detected – he is suspended from the race for that day. Tolerance is (0.00 per 1000).

15. ADDITIONAL RULES FOR EXTREME

- 15.1. Racers in EXTREME are (except in emergency situations) NOT allowed to accept help from any other person, except same from same class racers or from organizer. It is not allowed to get people pushing/pulling/holding pilot or ATV, or pull and fix their winch ropes, etc.
- 15.2. Whoever is seen, filmed or reported as accepting this prohibited kind of help, will get 30 (half hour) minutes penalty time for each time he was helped.

16. ADDITIONAL RULES ADVENTURE

- Every day there will be “wolves” to be reached. The “wolves” are GPS points, which every morning are sent by the organizers by mail to the participants and must be uploaded by them with GPS App. One “wolf” is called “last wolf” by the organizers in advance and must be reached by the pilots as the last wolf of the day. At the last wolf ends the race time. From the last “wolf” teams can drive back to base slowly but must reach it before general day race finish time. Best is to reach all wolves and then last wolf fastest, and the base before “daily race end time”.

Official Regulations of HUNT-THE-WOLF 2020

Otherwise, every minute delay will be added to team time as penalty time, 1' penalty for 1' delay. Each NOT reached “wolf” equals 1h penalty time. Each race day, a team gets the YELLOW card for reaching less than 2 “wolves”. A team gets a 1h bonus for reaching ALL AND the last “wolf”.

- At each “wolf” every team must take a picture showing the landscape around the “wolf” AND the vehicles of ALL participants. On request of the organizers the picture must be sent to the organizer by mail. The organizer has the free right to use all these pictures for marketing purposes.

17. RESULTS

- 17.1. Preliminary day race results will be announced 2 hour after time cap of the day.
- 17.2. Deposit for complaint/protest is 50 EUR. If the complaint is rejected as unsound by general judge – deposit is not refunded. If protest is reasoned – deposit is returned 100%.
- 17.3. Final results will be announced after 5 day racing period within 2 hours after time cap.
- 17.4. If racers or teams have obligations that results are incorrect, all complaints can be provided no later than 1 hour after preliminary result announcement. Deposit for complaint/protest is 50 EUR. If the complaint is rejected as unsound by general judge – deposit is not refunded. If protest is reasoned – deposit is returned 100%.
- 17.5. Winners of the Race are announced within 3 hours after time cap (last daily finish time).
